The French-German Cultural Center (FGCC) in Ramallah is launching a new project, funded by the French-German Cultural Fonds 2018.

AUF DEM WEG. EN CHEMIN. ع الطريق means “on the road” and is a three-part project, comprised of a residency, an exhibition and a 24-hour artistic event. The two-week residency will take place in Palestine and will be followed by a satellite exhibition on notions and actions revolving around the concept of wandern, to wander, se promener and يتمشى. This open call is addressed to artists and cultural practitioners who are currently residing in Palestine, France or Germany and invites contributions on the topic in order to participate in a two-week residency, which will result in the production of a satellite exhibition together with the artist and curator Jack Persekian.

To close this cycle, a 24-hour artistic event will bring together contributors on stage to perform, present, read, or indeed walk their take on the subject. The residents artists will also participate with their own project developed during their residency.

If this theme inspires you and you have a connection, memories, ideas or questions related to walking that you would like to explore, we would love to receive your application by Sunday, 22nd April 2018. A jury of four experts -the lawyer and writer Raja Shehadeh, the dancer and choreographer Farah Saleh, writer and co-founder of el-Atlatl Karim Kattan and the singer and actress Reem Talhami- will choose 12 participants by the end of April 2018.

WHO WE ARE

Since 2004, the French-German Cultural Center brings together two institutions in Palestine: the Goethe-Institut and the Institut français in Ramallah. Located in the center of the city, the French-German Cultural Center includes a French-German library. The center has been working in the field of French and German language education. It is also dedicated to artistic and cultural cooperation with local partners. In addition, the center offers a gallery space and a multi-purpose room.

WHO CAN APPLY

Artists and cultural practitioners, across all media and forms, whose work is related to any notion of walking (physically, metaphysically or metaphorically) and movement (locomotion), currently residing in Palestine, France or Germany.
